A CALL TO ARMS

NO LONGER ANY DOUBT AS TO
THE POLICY OF COLONEL
THEODORE ROOSEVELT

WILL WAGE A BITTER FIGHT

After a Long Conference With Kansas Men, Leaders Among Anti Cannonites, the Statement is That He Has Enlisted.

International News Service.
Oyster Bay, July 2.—The definite attitude of Col. Roosevelt toward the administration of President Taft was made clear today, after he had had a three hours' conference at Sagamore Hill with three insurgent Republicans from Kansas—Senator Bristow, Representatives Murdock and Madison.

From now on, if today's developments count for anything, Roosevelt will conduct a bitter fight as the leader of the insurgents.

"My policies forever" will be the new Roosevelt slogan. The insurgents who swapped notes with Roosevelt today have been in the forefront of the battle against the Taft administration and Cannonism. Their sym-paties have been with Pinchot and all the Roosevelt policies.

Decides these insurgents, Col.
Roosevelt had another equally important visitor, Lloyd C. Griscom, chairman of the New York republican county committee, to whom the ex-president sent a telegram last week urging that the legislature at Albany pass the direct primary bill.
Col. Roosevelt talked with Mr.
Griscom over the situation in New York state, particularly the defeat of the direct primary bill.

The international news service is now able to announce positively that Col. Roosevelt is to try to take a firm grip upon the republican political machinery in New York state.
He is stung deeply over the brutal overriding of his desires as to the direct primary bill, and is going to map out a course of aggressive activity in state affairs so far as his party is concerned.

Not only will the distinguished first citizen watch events at the White House and try to shape them to his liking, but he will essay to take control of the state situation.
He will carry to the fullest extent the purposes he announced upon his return home, to devote himself to helping to solve the country's grave problems. He will go even further in attempting to fix them himself, and judging from the confident tone of the ex-president as he talked this evening, he expects to accomplish all he has started out to do.

SEDALIAN GETS A PATENT

Machinist Who Has Worked for Missouri Pacific Three Years.

Louis Lebovitz, a well known Missouri Pacific railway machinist, has been granted a patent in the United States for a tie plate, which can be used in wood, steel or cement.

Mr. Lebovitz, who is a skilled mechanic, has been working on the invention for six months. He has also applied for a patent for a spike to hold ties in position, but up to date the patent has not been issued.

Mr. Lebovitz is a brother of Sol Frank Lebovitz, a former railway machinist here, now employed at Jersey City, N. J. The latter is just home from a visit with his parents in Palestine, where Mr. and Mrs.
William Latour visited on their recent tour of Europe.

PLACE SIGNALS OF DANGER

Failure to Do Will Lead to Arrest and Prosecution.

Mayor J. W. Mellor Saturday is sued orders to Chief of Police E. H.
Wood, requesting the arrest of every contractor or anyone else who fails to place street lights in front of any obstruction on public streets during the night time, the result of Mrs. W.
E. Wentzelman and children narrowly escaping serious injury on West Fourth street Thursday night by colliding with a pile of gravel, unprotected by any light whatever.

According to Mayor Mellor, the city ordinance in this particular is flagrantly violated by many, but hereafter violators will be arrested and vigorously prosecuted.

Realized $13 From a Social.

The members of the Christian Endeavor society of the First Congregational church gave a well attended and delightful social at the church lawn Friday evening, clearing about $13 from the affair.

The lawn was prettily decorated with Japanese lanterns, and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served.

Gov. Hadley Here Saturday.

Governor Herbert S. Hadley, en route home to Jefferson City from Ponca, Ok., passed through Sedalia the address of welcome, followed by five-minute talks by prominent orators of the city.

The Sedalia Military band will furnish music throughout the day and evening.

Everyone is requested to take their dinner to the park, although for those who do not desire to do so meals will be served on the grounds.

In the afternoon there will be horse racing, novelty horse and mule races, automobile races, a baseball game between the First M. E. church and the Fifth Street M. E. church, South, a band concert, etc.

At night there will be a grand display of fireworks, the sum of $200 having been expended in this line.
The display will be given under the direction of John M. Glenn, captain of the Sedalia Flambeau club.

PROMOTION OF COOPER

Second Assistant Day Agent for the Missouri Pacific.

S. T. Cooper, night ticket agent for the Missouri Pacific railway in this city, has been promoted to the position of second assistant-day agent, effective on July 4, and after that date for a period of four months will be on duty during day time.

Chester Holland, formerly of this city, now night agent at Jefferson City, will succeed Mr. Cooper as night agent.

With the new arrangement J. W.
McClain, city passenger and ticket agent, will have two assistants for day duty, which will enable him to devote more of his time to the Missouri state fair exhibitions.

Miss Rosa Pearle is ill.

Miss Rosa Pearle, editress of Rosa Pearle's Paper, is suffering from an attack of nervous prostration at her West Seventh street residence, and as a result of the affliction she has been unable to issue a paper for the past fortnight. Her condition Sat-

GIRL POSED AS MAN

GRACE MCKINLEY, ALIAS GRACE
MACK, WAS ARRESTED
HERE SATURDAY.

HER HAIR CUT LIKE THAT OF A BOY

She Came Here Thursday Night From Quincy, Ill., Where for the Past Month She Has Been Driving a Carriage.

After masquerading as a man for the past six months, Grace McKinley, alias Grace Mack, a female, 21 years old on October 22, next, fell into the clutches of the police Saturday and now occupies cell No. 1 in the city battle, awaiting hearing of a state charge to be preferred against her before Judge James C. Connor, ex-officio justice of the peace, tomorrow.

The female is a singular character, to say the least. She is of medium height, stout build, plump and has large hands. Her hair is trimmed to make her resemble a boy. She has a strong, masculine face, but otherwise is a perfect specimen of womanhood.
Thursday night she came to Sedalia from Quincy, Ill., where for the past six months she has been driving a carriage and doing other masculine jobs. She found quarters at the home of E. R. Adams on East Third street.
At that time she was garbed as a man.

Thursday and Friday nights she paid for her room, but Mr. Adams became suspicious of his guest and notified Chief of Police Wood. The latter dispatched G. C. McCabe, an officer, to the Adams home to question the individual, and, if necessary, take her to headquarters.

The female had disappeared in the meantime, and Officer McCabe started to return to police headquarters. Enroute he espied a suspicious looking person, attired as a female, standing in front of an Ohio avenue show window. He learned she was the desired person and took her to headquarters, where the girl related her story.

She said she was born in Indiana.
Her mother died when the girl was 3½ years old, and less than two years later her father died. The girl was placed in a Catholic convent, where she remained until she was 15 years of age.

She then left the institution, so her story goes, and secured employment as a waitress in a hotel. After some months she decided to masquerade as a man, thinking she could earn money more easily. That was her start, which was the beginning of her undoing.

When arrested she had 35 cents on her person and a rosary around her neck. The feminine garb she had on when arrested she bought here Friday.

"I'll stay in jail until they let me out," she told a Democrat-Sentinel reporter, "for it's a cinch they can't hang me or keep me here for life."

Chief Wood last afternoon had a photograph of the girl taken, which will be placed in the rogues' gallery.

THE FIGHT BY ROUNDS

Lyric Theater Gets a Direct Service Through Wire for Reno Fight.

The Jeffries-Johnson fight at Reno, Nev., tomorrow will be known in Sedalia just as fast as it is fought. The news will be given by rounds at the Lyric theater, Manager Hoxie having made arrangements Saturday to provide returns in details for 25c, and in addition give all patrons a fine moving picture show and orchestra music. The Lyric was reopened one week ago and Manager Hoxie has installed a large exhaust fan and electric fans, making the Lyric a delightfully cool place.

"MAC" BOUGHT LIVERY

J. R. McAllister Buys Former Livery of Tow Shock.

J. R. McAllister, the West Second street liveryman, Saturday closed a deal, hereby he purchased the livery stable formerly owned by Tom Shock at 207 South Osage avenue from Colvin Bros. of Lamonte, the consideration being private.

Mr. McAllister will continue to conduct his West Second street stable and solicits the business of old patrons of his new accession.

Mrs. Reno Seeks Divorce.

Alleging that he deserted her, Mrs.
Nina M. Reno, through Attorney E.
W. Couey, Saturday brought suit in circuit court for divorce from her husband, John M. Reno, a former Missouri Pacific locomotive fireman, to whom she was married in Sedalia on July 24, 1907. She also asks for the custody of their minor child, Glen Everett.

Farewell Sermons Today.

The Rev. A. W. Kokendoffer, pastor of the First Christian church, and the Rev. Grant A. Robbins, D. D., pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal church, will preach their farewell sermons today, preliminary to their departure at noon tomorrow for a three months' tour of Europe.

TO SPEND $20,000

THE BELL TELEPHONE CO. WILL IN SEDALIA WITHIN THE

BUSINESS INCREASE DEMANDS IT

Underground and Aerial Cables Are to Be Placed—Will Require a Force of Over One Hundred Workmen.

The Missouri and Kansas (Bell)
Telephone company will spend $20,- 000 in Sedalia just as soon as it can be expended for the work desired.
The money will be spent for underground and aerial cable, pole line and aerial wire.

The material to be used has been ordered and as soon as the consignment can be shipped from the factory to Sedalia the work will begin. It will require a force of between fifty and one hundred workmen to install the new cable, and several months' time will be required in completing the task.

The intention of the management is to have a cable in every alley in West Sedalia, also to extend the cable to the Missouri state fair grounds, southwest of town. When finished, that will give the Bell company many miles of cable in the city.

The expenditure of such a large sum is necessitated, according to S.
R. Smith, local manager, by the big increase in business which the company is doing in Sedalia.

At present the Bell company has 2900 telephones in this city and territory. The year 1909 showed a net increase of 402 telephones, while for the first six months of 1910 the number of telephones was increased more than 200.

The expenditure of this sum will mean much for the Queen City, for the work to be done will be mostly by out-of-town people, who will make their home here for six months or probably longer.

THE BROADWAY PAVING

Four Blocks Remain to Complete the Contract.

George E. Cole, contractor for the Midland Bridge company, of Kansas City, which firm has the contract for paving Broadway between Grand and Barrett avenues, Saturday completed the paving as far west as Stewart avenue, leaving an additional four blocks to complete the work.

The inclement weather has materially delayed the street paving, although if the weather permits the job will be finished soon. When completed the avenue will be the finest thoroughfare in Sedalia, beyond a doubt.

CONNECT AT GREEN RIDGE

The Bell Telephone Co. Has Completed Arrangements.

The Bell Telephone company Friday signed a contract with the management of the Green Ridge Telephone company for toll connections with that place, and in the future patrons of the Bell will have communication with Green Ridge and vicinity.

About a year ago the Bell company made arrangements for connections at Green Ridge, but the city council there blocked the enterprise.
Since then A. E. Poteet, sub-licensee man for the Bell, has been engaged in trying to arrange a satisfactory agreement, which was made Friday.

PUT $15,000 ON JIM

THAT SUM BET ON JEFFRIES AT ODDS OF 10 TO 6½ ON EVE OF BATTLE.

"JIM" J. CORBETT $5,000 MORE

Helpers of Johnson Saturday Put Up $5,000 to Be Wagered on the Black Man—Frank Gotch Picks the White Man.

Associated Press.
Reno, Nev., July 2.—Training activities having ostensibly ceased in both Johnson and Jeffries' camps, Reno has settled down with what quiet it may to await the big battle Monday at 1:30 p. m., or 3:30, Missouri time.

There being little of interest at the fighters' headquarters, the greater part of the crowds remained down town today, packing the streets, hotels and gambling places.

Betting has improved a bit. It was announced today that $15,000 was placed on Jeffries late yesterday at 10 to 6½. Jim Corbett has offered to bet $5,000 on Jeffries at the prevailing odds.

"Tex" Rickard said today he expected to clear $100,000 on the fight.
Practically all $50 and $10 seats are sold.

Gotch, the wrestler, who arrived last night, visited Jeffries' camp and said today:

"Jeffries surely will win; he looks the best I have ever seen him."

Everything is calm at Johnson's camp. The negro has ceased all work, with the exception of walking.
His entire camp says he is fit. His helpers today put up $5,000 to be placed on Johnson at the prevailing odds.

End Almost in Sight.

(BY W. W. NAUGHTON.)

Reno, Nev., July 2.—The end is almost in sight now. All that outdoor or indoor work can do for Jeffries and Johnson has been done. Today the punching bag is dangling unmolested, and the bruised faces of the sparring partners are being given an opportunity to heal.

It is taken for granted that the rival heavyweights are in good condition and that nothing growing out of the men's preparation for the big fight has been withheld.

Now is the time for naming your choice and making your bet. The excitement has become intense and the public mind is so sensitive that any kind of opinion almost leaves its impression. On one point there is more unanimity than there was a row afternoon.

The affair will be a sumptuous country dinner at 5 o'clock, followed by a grand display of fireworks at night. The guests expect to return tend the function.

PAID $150 ON THEIR DEBT

Trinity Ladies' Aid Society Makes Its Report.

The July meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of Trinity English Lutheran church was held Friday afternoon with Mrs. C. L. Maggard at 414 South Quincy avenue. The meeting was well attended. Besides routine business the treasurer reported the payment of $150 on the parsonage indebtedness.

During the social part of the meeting splendid refreshments were served.

ployee of this establishment may have an opportunity of celebrating Independence day, there will be no issue of the Democrat-Sentinel Monday

Earl Downing Goes to Fayette.

Earl Downing, a former Sedalia boy, and a brother of Mrs. R. M.
Scotten, wife of an M. K. & T. car inspector, residing at 605 West Seventh street, who was taken ill with malaria fever at his home at Parsons, Kas., the past week, passed through Sedalia Saturday, en route to his home at Fayette, where he will remain until he recuperates. He was accompanied by his brother-in-law, Mr. Scotten.

City Attorney Couey Ill.

E. W. Couey, city attorney, was taken ill Saturday and last night was confined to his bed with a high fever.
Mrs. Couey stated the illness was not thought to be serious and that the city's legal adviser would be able to be at work tomorrow.

EARS TO GROUND

POLITICIANS AWAITING TURN OF EVENTS TO DECIDE WHICH WAY TO JUMP.

SHALL IT BE TAFT OR ROOSEVELT?

Or Will There Be No Necessity for a Choice Between the Two—The Colonel May Take a Crack at State Organization.

Beverly, Mass., July 2.—President Taft is being besieged by republican leaders through the country who desire appointments, that they may talk with him about the meeting with Col. Roosevelt and get a line on how the political cat is going to jump.

The watchword for these leaders for the present is patience. Secretary Norton desires it to be known that he has ordered the president to take a complete rest for ten days, beginning July 5, and during that time no one will be permitted to see him.

In the meantime it may be depended upon as a certainty that the president will take some steps to assist with all the power of his administration the move that Roosevelt is planning to take control of the organization which set his orders at naught at Albany the other day in defeating the primary bill.

Whatever the president does, however, will be done quietly. Secretary Norton let the fact be known today that the president will not take part in any state campaign this fall unless it be Ohio. In the meanwhile the talk between Taft and Roosevelt will be regarded as personal and confidential.

Lexington Branches.

For the accommodation of those who desire attending the Fourth of July celebrations at Warsaw and Cole Camp, the Missouri Pacific railway will provide an excursion train, which will be run from Cole Camp to Warsaw on July 4, leaving Cole Camp at 10:30 p. m., making all stops, thence returning from Warsaw to Sedalia, making all stops.

The Missouri Pacific has also provided a special train to be run on the Lexington branch on July 4, the train to leave Sedalia for Concordia about 8 p. m., and returning here will leave Concordia about midnight.

SIX MONTHS IN JAIL

Now Carl Trigg Won't Have to Go to Penitentiary.

Criminal Judge Louis Hoffman Saturday reduced the sentence of Carl Trigg, a negro, who last week was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary for carrying concealed weapons, to six months in the Pettiscounty jail.

Trigg's attorney, M. A. McGruder, presented to the court a petition, started by Police Judge James C.
Connor, asking that the sentence be lessened, which the judge granted.

Judge McAnich's Son Ill

Anich, presiding judge of the county court, is quite ill at his parents' home near Hughesville, under the care of Dr. Cartwright.

THAT OF ADELAIDE PROCTOR IS SENT TO WILLIAM LA-TOUR, OF THIS CITY.

MAILED BY LONDON JOURNALIST

The Writer's Tribute to the "Poetess of Beauty" Is Something Beautiful and Is Worthy of Preservation.

William Latour has received from his friend, Harold Goodwyn, a jour-
graph of the grave of Adelaide Proctor, together with an appreciated letter, from which the following is taken:

"As promised, I enclose a photo of the grave of Adelaide Proctor, neglected and ruined by the London atmosphere.

"When my American friend and myself searched in the St. Mary's cemetery at Kensal Green, West London, we found a clump of ivy, bushy and dark; and a curiosity alone led us to the discovery that hidden in that clump was a tombstone to Adelaide and her sister.

"Think of it, Mr. Latour! Adelaide, the poetess of beauty, whose lines were accepted by Charles Dickens for his 'All the Year Round,' before he knew his correspondent, 'Miss Berwick,' was—Adelaide, the daughter of the famous Bryan Walter Proctor (Barry Cornwall), the poet of poets in mid-Victorian days.

"Dickens wrote the preface to her
'Lays and Lyrics' after her death, and his description therein of her deathbed equals his account of the deathbeds of Betty Higdon, Little Dowbey and I.

"And yet it was reserved for a stranger, Mr. Wm. Bok, of the United States, and a broken-down old journalist (myself) to discover the place in which this beautiful queen of lyrics was laid to rest.

"And bethink you, Mr. Latour, beyond the paid advertisement in the newspapers there was not one single line of her death or burial. I reckon that the American people would not so forget their duty to their songbirds. What say you?

"With respectful compliments to Mrs. Latour, I have the honor to be,
dear sir, your very obedient servant
—Harold Goodwyn."

The Weather Forecast.

Generally fair weather except probably local thunder-storms Sunday.

BLAME THE FARMER.

The Lodge investigating committee appointed by the Aldriches of the senate to find something besides the tariff upon which to blame the higher cost of living has made its report. Senator Lodge, representing the New England manufacturers, who got most of the benefits of the new tariff, finds that "the tariff has been no material factor in causing the advance in prices during the past decade."

He regretfully admits that prices have advanced, but announces positively that the trusts and the tariff have done their best to keep prices down.

After five months of investigation he finds that the high prices are caused by the farmers. He charges them with rushing up the price of eggs 100 per cent, of bacon 70 per cent, of ham one-third, of flour half as much again. Mr. Lodge, Mr. Aldrich and their manufacturer friends, who have done all they could to aid the consumer by raising the tariff and enabling him to pay more for everything he buys, are indignant at the way the farmer has acted.

To read the Lodge report, you would judge that the farmer is rolling in wealth. He must have been piling up his ill-gotten gains like hay mounds in the field, while the poor New England manufacturer and the struggling New York trust magnate must worry along with a few millions of dollars apiece, and have to ride in automobiles and private cars;
the farmer mocks them as he rolls by in his palatial one-horse wagon, on his way to the village store, where he sells ten dozens eggs at a profit of 8 cents a dozen. The average farmer is now piling up wealth at the rate of $372 a year. He will be shocked and surprised; he will gnash his teeth with rage when he finds that Lodge has exposed him as a malefactor of great wealth.

Or, the farmer may be like the ultimate consumer and consider the Lodge report the political joke of the season.

REFORMS IN THE CONGO.

Congo reform, for which the governments, churches, missionary societies and other organizations throughout a large part of the civilized world have been working for years, will become an accomplished fact when the plans formulated by the Belgian ministry and approved by King Oscar become effective. Simultaneously a large area of the Congo region will be opened to free commerce.

The reforms include the suppression of polygamy, the substitution of native for white officials, a reduction in taxes, which will be paid in money and not collected in labor, and the restriction of obligatory labor on the part of adults to the works dedicated to the improvement of their own condition.

The most vital provision of the reform program is the suppression of forced labor, a situation which has rendered possible the terrible conditions which in the past have aroused the horror of the civilized world.

Under the Leopold regime the collection of taxes in labor instead of money, enabled that monarch to work his immense rubber trade free of expense. A quota of so much rubber in lieu of taxes was demanded of each village, an amount which would require the labor of every adult in the village virtually all of his life time.
Failure to produce the allotted portion at the required time was followed by immediate punishment at the hands of the black soldiers of the Congo government, consisting too frequently of tortures, mutilations or death.

These crimes and tortures were so revolting that all nations joined in protest, with the present results.

Roosevelt will please sit up and take notice. Census enumerators say that Little Rock, Ark., holds the state record for large families. Mrs.
Abraham Buller, 84 years old, is the mother of fifteen children, all living.
Mrs. Laura Rundles, 44 years old, has twenty-two children living, while two are dead. Mrs. Maggie Howard has been married nineteen years and is the mother of seventeen children, all living.

There's money in the air. Aviator Bleriot had spent his entire fortune before he started on his famous channel flight and a few years ago he had an income of $12,000. It all went on his aeroplane experiments, and only his wife, of all his relatives, had faith in him. Now he is rich again, and it isn't anything for him to clear $20,000 a week.

Opponents of the high cost of living are referred to the case of the New York physician who lost 35 pounds of undesirable weight and otherwise benefitted his health by a twenty-one days' fast, getting along finely with filling himself every twenty-four hours with hot water and cheerful thoughts.

The Gainesboroughs and the Turners which adorn the walls of the vulgar rich will have to take a back seat in the picture world since those of the big fight have sold for $150-000 in cold cash.

Letters curiously formed and written with red chalk, says the New York Press, on a card in the window of a frame building not 300 yards from Columbia University, announce: "Day Bored and Vokel Music Taught."

Looking at the queer things for haberdashery, says the New York Evening Telegraph, it's strange that no smart togethery shop thought to market a comet brand of shirt with a distinct tail.

Those new lightning rods which are to be put on the White House at a cost of $300 would seem to indicate that Smilin' Bill has an idea it may strike again. He wants to be rendered as safe as possible.

Among others who plan a good long vacation is the big fish which will so often be pulled to the top of the water only to get away.

THIRD HOUSE

The following is a communication from Mr. A. L. Pringle:

The machinists' committee of the Missouri Pacific at the St. Louis conference, offered point blank to settle on the Rock Island basis and the offer was refused. The railroad management replied that it would agree to nothing short of the Chicago general managers' conference proposition.

The following letter was recently sent by the Sedalia Business Men's association to the officials of the company:

Mr. A. W. Sullivan, General Manager of the Missouri Pacific Railway Co., St. Louis, Mo. Dear Sir:—A meeting of the Business Men's association of Sedalia was held yesterday afternoon and a committee representing the machinists of the Missouri Pacific Sedalia shops asked the privilege of attending the meeting, and they were granted this courtesy.

The strike of the machinists was discussed from every point of view, together with the agreement which has been submitted to the machinists by the Missouri Pacific Railway Co. At the conclusion of the discussion, and by a unanimous vote of the members present, the secretary of the Business Men's association was instructed to inform you of the action taken at this meeting, and to suggest that if the company will agree to reinstate all the men and eliminate the clause in the agreement pertaining to the lap system, we believe that a satisfactory adjustment can be made at once.

The members of the association believe this is a fair compromise, and for the interest of both the company and city, respectfully request that you grant this concession.—Yours very truly, Business Men's Association, J. W. Mellor, Secretary.

To this the following reply was received:

St. Louis, Mo., June 27, 1910.—Mr.
J. W. Mellor, Secretary Business Men's Association, Sedalia, Mo.
Dear Sir:—I have your letter of 25th inst. in relation to machinists' strike at Sedalia shops, and in reply would say, my views in relation to this matter were explained at length to a committee of citizens upon the occasion of my visit to Sedalia, 17th inst.
There is but little I can add at this time to what was said then, which, in substance, was that none of the new men would be dismissed to make room for return of the strikers, and that so long as the new men who are making large wages are compelled to remain upon the company's premises, they will have no opportunity to spend in Sedalia any of the money they are making, which now amounts to over $600 per day. I doubt if even Sedalia is a place of such super-abundant prosperity that its merchants can afford to let $600 per day in cash slip away from them, for if these men are not given an opportunity to spend the money in Sedalia, they will spend it in other places.

Spring Rambles in Colorado

By J. Bloomfield Carman.

From out the blue dome that bends above us the golden sun is flinging wide his gates of light, and with delicate skill is robbing the earth in beauty and crowding it with song. Hark how all the cunning minstrels sweep their golden lyres in strains of praise and gladness.

The clear, sweet notes of the oriole ring like golden bells through the leafy forest. The deep bass of the tireless bee trembles on the summer air as it darts from flower to flower in quest of nature's sweets. The flowers spring from their dark dungeons and mount heavenward, flinging to every passing breeze their sweet aroma. The robin floods all the sweet summer air with its golden notes of song.

The grasses, prompted by gentle zephyrs, bow to heaven their grateful acknowledgements. The flocks roam over the green meadows and along by the still waters, nibbling their luscious provender in dreamy content.
The gaudy butterfly flits airily on heavenly wing in the bright sunshine.
High up in the sweet sunlight, the tree-tops wave their maiden plume and whisper their deep joy with every passing breeze.

The fields of living green point their emerald shafts heavenward, in token of grateful praise. The crystal brooks leap and laugh and dance and sing, and turn glad somersaults over rocks and boulders on their way to the sea.

The speckled trout, in rainbow colors, darts and glides and flashes his way through the limpid waters that laugh and shout at his coming.
A nimble squirrel, with bead-like eyes and bushy tail, flashes across my path, and in a twinkling is peering saucily down upon me, chattering, from yonder leafy bough.

And the kingly hills of granite loom up before me, rising higher and yet higher, pushing their rugged peaks up and up, until they seem to pierce the very skies. Like solemn sentinels they stand, high up in the clear, blue ether, and peer sternly down at the busy, careless throng that hurries to and fro at their feet.

These grim and solemn mountains, these everlasting hills that have braved the storms of centuries, are God's pulpits, that seem to speak to us from out the heavens of the glory and grandeur and might and majesty of the Eternal.

Sedalia, Mo., July 2, 1910.

Many of these men are better mechanics than those who left the company's service; many of them are willing and anxious to send for their families and locate permanently in Sedalia, where they will make valuable citizens, and the quicker it is made possible by the city administration for these men to become permanently a part of the community, the quicker their money will be released to be spent in the community.

It seems to me that the commercial side of this question should appeal to the members of your association, which, as I view the matter, is losing a large amount of business.

The new machinists which the company has taken into its service are in no sense strike breakers, but are carefully selected and competent mechanics who have entered the service of the company as permanent employees.—Yours truly, A. W.
Sullivan, General Manager.

The business men at Coffeyville, Little Rock and other points on the Missouri Pacific and Iron Mountain system have notified the company that the strike is demoralizing business.

Eighty-five per cent of the railways in the United States and Canada have signed agreements within the past six months with the machinists in their employ, granting them the same conditions of employment as the men on this system are asking for.

As the strike stands now, it will continue indefinitely until the company makes some advances toward an agreement. The machinists' committee hold themselves open at all times to a proposition or to further negotiations.—A. L. Pringle.

(The Democrat-Sentinel believes that the constant publication in the press of articles relating to the present strike, either favorable to one side or the other, can not in any way aid either party to the controversy in the slightest. The railway company has taken what it says is an unalterable stand, and the striking machinists assert just as vigorously that they will never recede from their demands. These statements being true, all the newspaper articles that could be written from the standpoint of either side can do no earthly good.

Heretofore this paper has published statements from the railway and from the men, and has endeavored to be fair to both.

But for the reasons above stated, it thinks it best from now on to ignore the strike entirely and keep all reference to it from its columns.)

Drawing a Conclusion.

Harvey Lanigan never said he disliked his mother-in-law, but—

Harvey Lanigan's mother-in-law was taken sick at his house one night and helped herself to a large dose of rat poison, thinking it was painkiller.

"They had a frightful time with the old lady. She had consumed sufficient poison, the doctor said, to kill a dozen persons. But she pulled through."

"It was a close shave," said the doctor, the next morning. "She took enough to kill the whole family, but the stuff, fortunately, must have been in stock for some time, and nearly all its strength was gone."

"A month later a friend asked Harvey Lanigan to recommend a reliable druggist to him."

"Squills is a good man, I understand," said the friend. "Know anything about him?"

"Well," said Harvey Lanigan, slowly, "I couldn't conscientiously recommend Squills & Co. to you, old man.
They swindled me on some rat poison once."

WANT HUMAN SKIN

City Hospital Physicians Must Have One Square Foot.

The City hospital physicians Saturday started a crusade to secure one square foot of human skin, which if secured will be grafted onto the body of Ernest Jerrell, an 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Jerrell, of East Howard street, who was seriously burned at his home five weeks ago.

The child has been a patient at the hospital since shortly after the burning occurred. According to the physicians unless new skin is grafted on the body the child will never recover.

Several days ago the mother of the boy furnished the surgeons a quantity of skin, which was grafted on the child successfully, but more is needed in order to save the patient's life.

According to the surgeons, skin can be removed from persons without serious results. While the skin is being taken off the person submitting to the operation undergoes some pain, but when the job is finished the pain ceases. In five or six days the denuded flesh is well.

Womanly Wisdom.

Man sues for woman's hand before marriage; she sews for him after ward.

Iron your handkerchiefs in the middle first. Then they will not be apt to pucker.

Inspect the cellar often and never allow any animal or vegetable matter to decay there.

Every farmer's wife ought to have a book in which to keep her ought-to-buy-ography. That is, things she ought to purchase.

How is your carpet-sweeper? Sometimes all that is needed to make a sweeper (that you think is worn out) do good work is to have the springs put in proper shape, or some new ones in place of the old ones.

Do you have any further need for your little carriage that baby rode in? If not, there may be a poor woman near you who would be very thankful for it. She will give her little ones a ride in it, and it will do them all good.

When asparagus is laid down in the water the tips cook to a pulp before the lower ends of the stalks are tender. Cut the bunches level across the bottom and stand them up in a pot of boiling, slightly salted water, which reaches not more than half-way up the stalks, and cover closely. Have some buttered toast in a hot dish; lift the asparagus out to drain on this and serve with a little melted butter.

Bread puddings may be delicious or otherwise, just as they are made. Usually they are too stiff with bread or baked until the custard breaks in to whey. They need only a covering of buttered bread, sprinkled with sugar; or are better if made of cinnamon buns, which are already sweetened and contain currants. For the custard, use three eggs to a quart of milk; do not make it too sweet. Bake only until the custard is set, not a moment longer, or it will be watery and spoiled.—Farm Journal.

The July Housekeeper.

While perhaps it cannot be said that The Housekeeper for July makes midsummer hot days, it can at least be shown that the airy freshness of its pages puts the blistering heat to shame by teaching so many ways in which it can be overcome. The abundant fiction pages offer amusement for an afternoon in the hammock. Lillian Bell tells some new facts about satisfactory summer sanitation. The fashion plates show airy garments. But best of all, mayhap, are the household and cookery pages, for we must eat, whether at home or picnicking, and just how to make the table appetizing is very worth while knowledge. Chester, Pa., July 2.—Mayor Johnson has come to the rescue of future brides and bridegrooms of this city, and has pledged himself to use the power of the entire police force to protect them from hazers.

Thursday night, while on his way home from a meeting of council, he passed a crowd of hazers marching along Market street with a newly married couple at the head of the line.

Calling up police headquarters, he summoned a detachment of policemen, broke up the parade of hazers, rescued the bride and bridegroom and sent them home in a cab. Then he issued the following edict:

"Marriage is no farce and should not be treated as such. In the future, so long as I am chief executive of Chester, there shall be no permits issued for parades or public demonstrations that will have a tendency to annoy newly married couples. Such matters should not be treated lightly."

CUBS VICTORIOUS

SEDALIA TEAM WON DECISIVE VICTORY OVER WARSAW SATURDAY.

GAME WAS DELAYED BY RAIN

Boys from Benton County Were Unable to Cross Plate, While Local Team Were Credited With Five—Game Today.

In the presence of a small but enthusiastic crowd, the Sedalia Cubs administered a stinging drubbing to the Warsaw Reds on the diamond at Liberty park Saturday afternoon; score, 5 to 0.

McGurren, the "old reliable," was on the firing line for Sedalia and dished out a variety of benders too difficult for the Benton countyites to connect with and when the last batter fanned the air thrice the Warsaw boys—game but defeated—bowed their heads to the ignominious cry of "skunked."

Merkle, a Kansas City Red Sox pitcher, was the star artist for Warsaw, but in the third inning his courage and ability failed him and he retired in favor of Senior. The latter worked bravely to assist his team in carrying off the honors, but in spite of all his efforts another local crossed the plate, running up the score to five.

The game was not called until 5 o'clock, owing to a heavy rain which fell in the early part of the afternoon, dampening the grounds materially, which added much to the listlessness of the exhibition. However, both teams put forth their best efforts and did all to make the exhibition a lively one.

The features of the exhibitions were a running one-hand catch by Stewart, the Subs' left-fielder, in the fourth inning; Miller's put-out at first by throwing the ball and retiring the runner; after stumbling and falling, and the hard work of both teams.

The official score follows:

Warsaw	ABRHPOAE
Malone	2 0 0 1 2 0
Meyers	4 0 1 5 2 0
Sullivan	4 0 0 1 2 1
Senior	4 0 1 1 9 1

ENROLLMENT LARGE

SUMMER TERM AT CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGE SHOWS INCREASE.

LARGEST IN SCHOOL'S HISTORY

Never before in the history of Central Business college was the enrollment so large during the summer months.

Every week sees a large number of pupils pass out into splendid positions, but notwithstanding this fact, enough pupils enroll each week to take their places.

The Central Business college student appreciates very much the night school session throughout the entire year, Saturday forenoon school, and the privilege of working in the school room any time from 7 o'clock in the morning until 9 o'clock at night, six days in the week.

Regular school begins at 8 o'clock in the morning, and by the time other schools begin at 9, our pupils have put in an hour of solid work in the coolest part of the day. We invite all who wish to attend business college to visit our school and it will not take them long to decide where they can get the best advantages.

Judging from the immense correspondence we are getting, and the large number that have already purchased scholarships, the enrollment the coming fall will be double that of any previous year. We advise all those who expect to attend school anywhere to write for full particulars concerning our special offer, good until July 15th. Our new, elegant 64-page catalogue will be ready for the mail in a very short time. Write for one, if interested. It is the most beautiful catalogue ever published by any business college.

ARMOR PLATE AND SHELLS

Made of Best Steel—Struggle Between Armor and Projectile Firms.

"A constant struggle is always going on between the firms that make armor plates and those that make guns and projectiles, though these firms are often rival departments of the same great establishment," writes Capt. F. G. Jackson, the English writer and explorer. "The old armor plates of wrought iron could keep out shells of a diameter equal to their own thickness, except at short ranges. The Palliser shot, however, with hardened point, soon disfigured iron plates. Then a steel face was welded to a wrought-iron back. This was beaten and then plates were made wholly of steel. A fresh advance in projectiles was met by various hardening processes applied to the face of the steel plate. A splinter of Krupp hardened steel, it is said, will scratch glass like a diamond. This intensely strong resistive had the effect of either throwing off the projectiles when they struck at an angle or of breaking them up, even when they penetrated the plate. The makers of projectiles responded by fitting the points of their missiles with softer caps of mild steel, so that they should bite on the plates instead of slipping off when striking at an angle.

"All modern projectiles are fired from rifled guns and are cylindrical in shape, with conical heads. To keep them point first and to correct deviation from the course they are made to revolve on their own axis while traveling. This is the purpose of the rifling of the guns with spiral grooves. The projectile is made to follow the grooves by having a driving band of copper on the shell, which is rather larger in diameter than the bore of the gun. This band is forced into the grooves by the explosion of the charge, compelling the projectile to follow the grooves. The latest invention is to fit the projectile with ball bearings to avoid friction and damage to the grooves and inner tube of the gun. If practicable this should enable an even higher velocity, and thus a longer range, to be obtained from guns.

"Armor-piercing shot or shell goes through a special method of manufacture. It is made of the very best steel, sometimes alloyed to give additional strength. It is cast or forged to a size very slightly larger than its intended dimensions. A groove is turned round it to hold the driving band that takes the rifling and the shot or shell is then hardened by heating the head of it till red-hot and cooling it suddenly in water or oil. The scale produced by this process is ground off the shell, the driving band is pressed into its groove by hydraulic power and turned down to its proper size and the projectile is ready."

THE CONFEDERATE FLAG.

General Cabell Tells How the Stars and Bars were Designed.

General W. L. Cabell, of Dallas, Texas, commander of the trans-Mississippi Department of the United Confederate Veterans, wrote recently the following history of the Confederate flag:

"When the Confederate army, commanded by General Beauregard, and the Federal army confronted each other at Manassas it was seen that the Confederate flag and the Stars and Stripes looked at a distance so much alike that it was hard to distinguish one from another. General Beauregard, after the battle of July 18 at Blackburn Ford, ordered that a small red badge should be worn on the left shoulder of our troops, and, as I was Chief Quartermaster, ordered me to purchase a large quantity of red flannel and to distribute it to each regiment.

"During the battle of Bull Run it was plain to be seen that a large number of Federal soldiers wore a similar red badge. General Johnston and General Beauregard met at Fairfax Courthouse in the late part of August or early September determined to have a battle flag for every regiment or detached command.

"General Johnston's flag was in the shape of an ellipse—red flag with blue St. Andrew's cross and stars on the cross (white) to represent the different southern states. (No white border of any kind was attached to the cross.) General Beauregard's was a rectangle, red, with St. Andrew's cross and white stars, similar to General Johnston's.

"After we had discussed fully the two styles, taking into consideration the cost of material and the care of making the same, it was decided a elliptical flag would be harder to make; that it would take more cloth and it could not be seen so plainly at a distance; that the rectangular flag, drawn by and suggested by General Beauregard, should be adopted. General Johnston yielded at once.

"No one else was present but we three. No one knew about this flag but we three until an order was issued adopting the Beauregard flag, as it was called and directing me as Chief Quartermaster to have the flag made as soon as it could be done. I immediately issued an address to the good ladies of the south to give me their red and blue silk dresses, and to send them to Captain Colin McRae Selph, Quartermaster at Richmond, Va.—Captain Selph is now living in New Orleans—where he was assisted by two elegant young ladies, the Misses Carey, from Baltimore, and Mrs. Henningsen, of Savannah, and Mrs. Hopkins, of Alabama.

"The Misses Carey made battle flags for General Beauregard and General Van Dorn, and I think, for General J. E. Johnston. They made General Beauregard's out of their own silk dresses. This flag is now in Memorial Hall, New Orleans, with a statement of that fact from General Beauregard. General Van Dorn's flag was made of heavier material, but very pretty.

"The statement going around that this flag was first designed by Federal prisoners is false.

"General Beauregard's battle flag is in Memorial Hall, at New Orleans. The Washington Artillery battle flag can be seen at the Washington Artillery Hall."—Baltimore Sun.

It has been some time announced that the new machine for traveling without horses, being impelled entirely by steam, was matched to run 24 hours against any horse in the kingdom. This bet, so novel in the sporting world, will be decided on Wednesday and Thursday next. The machine is to start at two o'clock on Wednesday on its ground in the fields near Russell square to demonstrate the extent of its speed and endurance. Very large sums are depending on the issue. —From the London Observer, September 18, 1898.

SUIT IS PRAYER'S SEQUEL

Pastor Who Prayed for "Brother" May Have to Pay Damages.

Neoga, Ill., July 2.—Rev. R. F. Fisher, pastor of Neoga's Presbyterian church, was made defendant yesterday in a $500 libel suit, following his refusal to tell the Lord that he had wronged Jacob Strohl, a wealthy German farmer.

"Oh, Lord, make Brother Strohl a better man; cause him to pay his debts and have him cease backbiting," fervently supplicated the minister in a prayer which startled his congregation.

"Now you'd better make another prayer and straighten things up with the Lord," declared Strohl when Fisher concluded. Fisher refused.

Several years ago the Cumberland Presbyterians, of which Strohl was a member, built a church which was taken by the Presbyterians, the Cumberland being refused its use. Recently Strohl asked Fisher to preach the funeral services of one of the Cumberlands.

Strohl opened the services with a prayer for unity and fervently prayed for more grace for the pastor. Fisher followed with a prayer that caused Strohl's suit for damages.

KILLS HIS DIVORCED WIFE

Former Kansan Then Shoots Himself in Portland Hotel.

Portland, Ore., July 2.—Preferring death to life without the wife from whom he was divorced four weeks ago, S. T. Bolen, a railroad man, formerly of Iola, Kas., shot his wife and then himself in the grill room of a hotel here. He died instantly, but the wife will recover.

Mrs. Bolen met her husband on the street and fearing that he would carry out frequent threats to take her life, ran into the hotel. He followed and shot her just as she passed through the grill room door. An instant later he fired two shots into his own body.

Cut this out. It's good for a nice, useful sample of something you would like to have.

CROSSES BY THE ROADSIDE.

County Wexford, Ireland, Still Practices Quaint Funeral Custom.

In the district known as "the barony of Forth," in County Wexford, Ireland, is to be found a race of hard-working, industrious peasants, living in thatched cottages with clean, whitewashed walls, which by their perfect whiteness at once arrest the attention of the visitor. These people differ in many respects from the inhabitants of the other parts of the same country and have habits and customs peculiar to themselves. They are strong believers in the efficacy of prayers for the dead. When a funeral takes place two wooden crosses are provided. On the way to the cemetery a halt is made at a certain spot by the side of the road. Here prayers are said for the deceased, after which one cross is deposited in a hawthorn bush or under it. The procession then goes on its way, and after the interment the other cross is fixed at the head of the grave. This strange custom dates from time immemorial, as the great pile of crosses by the roadside indicates.

month ago—it is felt that it will be a square fight.

What kind of a fight will it be? A few days ago the feeling prevailed that Jeffries would go at Johnson open mouthed and demolish him before you could say Jack Robinson, but Jeffries has discouraged that idea. He intimates that if Johnson fights carefully he'll follow suit, and says that so far as ability is concerned he feels that he is Johnson's equal at cleverness.

Johnson smiles at all this and says he has made a close study of infighting and will be prepared to deal with Jeffries in any emergency that may arise.

Now that the training is over and chances of observation are of necessity curtailed, the writer must confess that Johnson's supreme confidence and utter lack of apprehension are more of a puzzle than ever. I have only one solution to offer for Johnson's attitude. That is that the black man believes Jeffries will repeat the lesson taught by the fights in which Sullivan and others tried to come back after years of absence from the ring.

Chicago, July 2.—Charles M. Spare, one of the jurors who held out for acquittal of Lee O'Neil Browne, the legislator charged with bribery, has filed the praecipe in a suit for $50,000 against State's Attorney Wayman.

NEWS OF THE RAIL

WAGE SCALE FOR SOUTHEASTERN LINES IS STILL UNSETTLED.

COACH, CAB AND CABOOSE ITEMS

Matters of Interest Picked Up From Various Sources for the Benefit of Democrat-Sentinel Readers.

Demands of the conductors and trainmen on the railways in the Southeastern territory, directly involving about 10,000 men, may develop a labor disturbance within a short time.

For fifteen days the mediators under the Erdman act, Chairman Knapp, of the Interstate Commerce commission, and Dr. Charles P. Neill, commissioner of labor, have been laboring with the general managers' committee of the roads and with representatives of the men to bring about an adjustment.

Thus far their efforts have been practically unavailing. The men have voted to strike unless their demands for increased wages and better labor conditions are granted.

Official announcement was made at the Interstate Commerce commission office Friday afternoon that the mediation proceedings were still under way, and that no strike of the men would be declared during the pendency of the proceedings. Hope still exists of adjusting the controversy without a strike.

Brakeman Wins Damage Suit.

Judgment was rendered against the Iron Mountain Railway company in favor of W. R. Webster, of Argenta, Ark., in the sum of $35,000 by a jury in the circuit court at Van Buren, Ark., Friday afternoon. This is the largest award for personal injury ever made in the state. The plaintiff at the time of his injuries was employed as a brakeman by the defendant company.

While mounting a moving freight car the iron hand-hold pulled out, and in the fall that followed Webster received injuries that caused curvature of the spine.

The plaintiff was represented by United States Senator Jeff Davis and his law partner, Frank Pace. L. P. Miles, counsel for the defendant, will appeal the case to the supreme court.

Receivers' $1,000,000 Liquidation Sale

TOMORROW marks the beginning of the second week of this amazingly successful sale. Last week's selling topped all previous records—and even though great inroads were made on these stocks by the overwhelming crowds that attended, our purchases were so extensive that as fast as the lots are depleted they are replaced with others quickly brought forward. This week's bargain offerings are among the very best, from a value-giving standpoint yet presented during this record-breaking event. Every yard or piece of merchandise in this sale is strictly new—just the very sorts most in demand right now.

The Hundley D. G. Co., of St. Joseph, Mo., one of the largest and best known concerns in the West, was forced into Receivers' hands and their entire $1,000,000 stock is now being liquidated for the benefit of creditors.

A PLEASING RECITAL

That at Jesse French Store Friday Night—Formal Opening.

The recital given Friday night to formally open the Jesse French Piano Co.'s new store in the Odd Fellows' building was a pronounced success and a rare musical treat. About 400 attended, and many unable to get in, stood on the sidewalk until fatigue from standing compelled them to retire.

The program, which contained such well known talent as Mrs. E. F. Yancey, McNair Higgenfritz and Misses Alice Brown and Agnes Scott Longan, was very pleasing and each number brought enthusiastic applause. There was no variance from the program as printed previous to the recital in these columns. The ushers were Misses Lois Williams, Gwendolyn Johns, Margaret Mackey and Celeste Lamy.

Mr. Adamson had the spacious store well equipped with electric fans and tastefully decorated.

All in all, the recital was an event long to be remembered as one of the most delightful and thoroughly enjoyed musicals ever held in Sedalia, all of which reflects credit upon the store and its genial manager for the able manner it was arranged and for securing such talented people for the cast.

Saloon Thought No. 431

THE SALOON AND LABOR.

I, perhaps, have been criticised as much as any man in the country for fighting against the saloon, but I am against the saloon because I have been in the organized labor movement all my life and I know what the saloon has done and is doing for the workers of our country. I know that every particle of influence that goes out from the saloon is an influence that must mean the reduction of real wages. That every cent that is spent in the saloon is so much that is wasted when it comes to buying things worth while. The saloon is not satisfied with a ten-hour or twelve-hour day; they want the saloon open twenty-four hours seven days every week and 365 days in the year—John B. Lennon, Treasurer American Federation of Labor, at the recent Springfield, Ill., County Option Conference.

People who need a rest cure may get one right in town by hiring a special suite in one of the fashionable hotels, where everything will be done and left undone to secure absolute quiet and isolation.

EUROPEAN QUEENS

HAVE THEY DISCOVERED THE FAMOUS WATERS OF ETERNAL YOUTH?

WHAT IS SECRET OF LONG LIVES?

At Present Time Nearly Every Court in Europe Is Dominated by a Dowager Queen—True What Is Well Known.

London, July 2.—Have the queens of Europe discovered the waters of eternal youth? If not, what is the secret of their long lives? At the present time nearly every court in Europe is dominated by a dowager queen. True, many of their deceased husbands have been sent to an early grave by the hand of an assassin, and this no doubt accounts in a great measure for the abundance of widowed queens.

England, Russia, Italy, Spain, Holland, Portugal and even France have royal widows, and in nearly every case these women exercise a powerful influence in court circles.

Alexandra, the queen mother of England, has become famous for her great beauty and youthful appearance. She is now in her 65th year, and is living quietly in Marlborough house, London. She was the Princess Alexandra, eldest daughter of King Christian IX of Denmark, and was married to the late King Edward March 10, 1863.

Queen Margherita of Italy, has shared a troubled throne, and even now, in her age and invalidism, is a mighty factor in the government of Italy.

She is a daughter of the late Duke of Genoa, and was married to the late King Humbert in 1869. After the occupation of Rome by the Italian government, in 1870, she took up her residence in the Quirinal palace, where she has lived ever since.

The difficulties with the Vatican and the attempts on the life of her husband by political enemies added to the hardships of her royal position, but she achieved a popularity with the people that never waned.

It was the influence of Queen Margherita that, according to accepted belief, prevented the marriage of Miss Katherine Elkins to the Duke of Abruzzi.

The Dowager Queen Amelie, of Portugal, is one of the most charming as well as one of the most tragic figures in Europe today.

She was a daughter of the Comte de Paris, of France, and her marriage to King Carlos, of Portugal, was a very happy one. But their throne was always tottering and the good sense and charity of Amelie was credited with doing much to hold the sympathy of the people.

She studied medicine and obtained a degree, practicing incognito in the poor quarters of Lisbon. She is finely courageous and once saved one of her boatmen from drowning.

But the supreme test of her courage came on Feb. 1, 1907, when in the streets of Lisbon her royal husband and the crown prince, her son, were assassinated in her presence. She sheltered in her arms her second son, the present King Miguel, and prevented his death.

Queen Amelie is still heavily burdened with the affairs of state, because of the youth of the present monarch. She is one of the most beautiful and intellectual royal women in the world.

Marie Sophia Frederik Dagmar, the royal widow of Russia, is a potent political figure. She is especially interesting by reason of the fact that she is a younger sister of the now widowed Queen Alexandra, and

Mother Queen Alexandre, of England

There was always a deep affection between the two Danish princesses who were chosen to ascend such mighty thrones.

Queen Marie was born in 1847, and although throughout her married life with the Czar Alexander III, she had great sorrows, and although since her widowhood, in 1894, she has passed through troublous times during the reign of her son, the present czar, she has remarkably retained her youthful appearance.

She has always been regarded as almost equally influential with her son, the czar, over whom she has considerable control. In times of stress in Russia she has been the emissary, under the veil of social visits, to other courts.

A most interesting figure in Europe, though one who has wielded her power so quietly as to be little spoken of, is the Dowager Queen Emma, mother of Wilhelmina, of Holland.

This remarkable woman married the selfish, ill-reputed King William III, of Holland, when he was nearing his 70th year, but she conducted herself with such admirable sagacity that even he, dying, was able to recognize her ability in government, and in 1888 provision for her regency during the infancy of their daughter was enacted.

Wilhelmina was then but 8 years old. The king soon died and for fourteen memorable years, although herself an invalid, Queen Emma directed the difficult affairs of Holland with a master hand.

A foreign born princess, she won the deepest respect of her subjects.

One of her most admirable actions was her complete retirement after her daughter assumed the throne and was married. She still lives very quietly, but in the enjoyment of the sincere regard of the people of Holland.

A similar but far more difficult task was that imposed upon and accomplished by Queen Christiana as regent of Spain.

She was an Austrian archduchess and was chosen to become the second wife of the dissolute Alfonso XII. Spain was in an uproar of political intrigue at the time, and when, in 1885, Alfonso died the storm of revolution seemed likely to break about the head of the young queen regent.

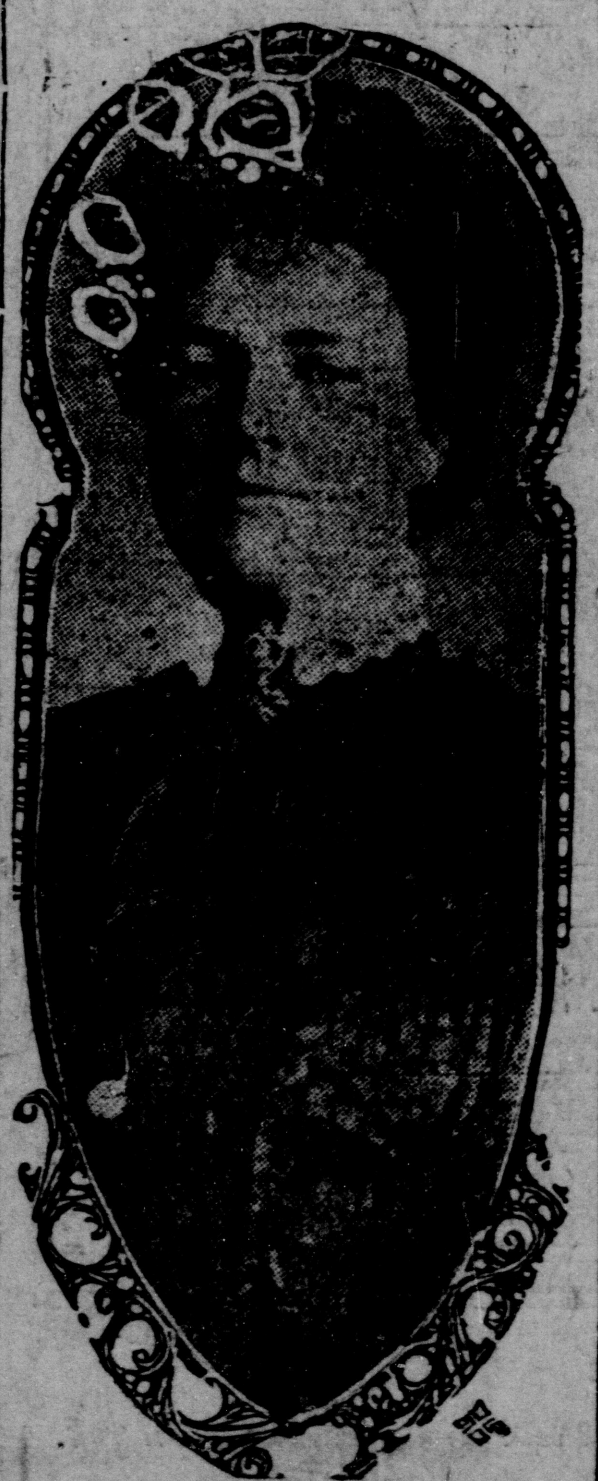

It became known, however, that she was about to become a mother and the revolutionary party decided to postpone action against the throne. Six months after the death of the king a son was born—the present King Alfonso, of Spain.

Throughout his infancy and youth, Christiana had the many cares of turbulent Spain upon her hands, but she acquitted herself so well that even the revolutionaries were quieted. The war with the United States was one of the burdens she had to bear, and it is generally admitted that Alfonso owes his throne to his mother's wisdom and ability. Queen Christiana is now 52 years of age.

WRITES LETTER TO TAX COLLECTOR

BY PHILLIP EVERETT.

International News Service.

London, July 2.—Defying the risk of being forever considered a henpecked husband, Bernard Shaw has notified the London tax collector's office that he cannot make his wife tell him what her private income is.

In a letter to the official mentioned, he writes:

"I am quite willing to have my wife's income deemed to be my income, and to pay the tax on it; but you have gone beyond this—you have required me to ascertain the amount of my wife's income, which I have no means of doing.

"The income tax acts give you power to obtain from my wife a return of her income. Do they give me that power? If so, can you refer me to the particular clause?"

"Observe, that I claim neither exemption nor abatement, and am ready to pay when you assess me."

Then followed a personal interview in which the famous playwright made these points:

"I have absolutely no means of ascertaining my wife's income except by asking her for the information.

"She keeps a separate banking account at a separate bank.

"Her solicitor is not my solicitor.

"I can make a guess at her means from her style of living exactly as the surveyor of income tax would; beyond that I have no more knowledge of her income than I have of yours.

"I have asked her to give me a statement.

"She refuses on principle.

"It is in the power of the commissioners to compel my wife to make disclosure of her income, but they must not communicate that disclosure to me or to any other person.

"All I can do for you is to tell you who my wife is, and leave it to you to ascertain her income and make me pay the tax on it.

"Even this you cannot do without a violation of secrecy, as it will be possible for me by a simple calculation to ascertain my wife's income from your demand.

"My wife enjoys a fixed income derived from property; a large part of my own is a fluctuating income derived from the precarious profession of play-writing. My income may in any year be much smaller than my wife's, in which case I shall have to pay on a much larger income than I enjoy.

"Now comes the question of what is to happen to husbands in my predicament. Let us suppose that the interruption of the law can be strained to the point of inducing the courts to enjoin me to make the required disclosure. I am unable to obey the injunction, because no man can tell what he does not know. I go to my wife and tell her that I shall be put to prison if she does not tell me her income.

"She replies that many women have gone to prison for the cause, and that it is time that the men should take their turn. Am I to languish in jail, to the delight of the whole suffragist movement, because I cannot perform impossibilities?"

"Take the obvious alternative. Suppose the courts enjoin my wife to disclose her exact income to me. She refuses. She is sent to prison. She promptly resorts to the hunger strike.

"Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. Winston Churchill have then forcibly to feed her and be banished to South Africa, as their unfortunate colleague, the Viscount Gladstone, was banished by Lady Constance Lytton, or else surrender at discretion.

"I suggest that Mr. Lloyd George had better cut the Gordian knot by marrying couples independent of one another in their liability to super-taxation."

HOW TO SAVE THE LIVES

Of People Who Have Been Bitten by Snakes Explained.

International News Service.

Geneva, July 2.—How to save the lives of people bitten by snakes was explained by Prof. Arthur at the Conference of Natural Sciences held at Lausanne. In eastern countries, where 20,000 victims of snakebite die every year, he said, the terrible mortality is due to the fact that in most cases medical aid is too far away. The professor stated that persons bitten by venomous snakes can be kept alive for eight or ten hours simply by subjecting them to artificial respiration. Meanwhile, in most cases, it will be possible for doctors to arrive in time to give the proper curative treatment.

QUICK RELIEF OF ITCHING ECZEMA

Was Surprising—Inflammation Reduced in a Few Hours and Cure Soon Followed—Boy's Torture Had Been Intense for Years—Friend's Child had Eczema, Too.

MOTHER TELLS HOW CUTICURA CURED BOTH

"When my boy was six years old, he suffered terribly with eczema. He could neither sit still nor lie quietly in bed, for the itching was dreadful. He would irritate spots by scratching with his nails and that only made them worse. A doctor treated him and we tried almost everything, but the eczema seemed to spread. It started in a small place on the lower extremities and spread for two years until it very nearly covered the back part of his leg to the knee.

"Finally I got Cuticura Soap, Cuticura Ointment and Cuticura Pills and gave them according to directions. I used them in the morning and that evening, before I put my boy to bed, I used them again and the improvement even in those few hours was surprising. The inflammation seemed to be so much less. I used two boxes of Cuticura Ointment, the same of the Pills and the Soap and my boy was cured. My son is now in his seventeenth year and he has never had a return of the eczema.

"I took care of a friend's child that had eczema on his face and limbs and I used the Cuticura Soap and Ointment. They acted on the child just as they did on my son and it has never returned. I would recommend the Cuticura Remedies to anyone. Mrs. A. J. Cochran, 1823 Columbia Ave., Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 20, 1909."

FOR SKIN HUMORS

Torturing, disfiguring patches of humor on the skin, scalp or hands are instantly relieved and speedily cured, in the majority of cases, by warm baths with Cuticura Soap and gentle anointings of Cuticura Ointment. ## CURES BLOOD TROUBLES

We have never claimed S. S. S. to be a medicine to work wonders, nor one that would cure every ailment of mankind; but we do know it to be a specific for those disorders originating from impure or diseased blood. When we say this medicine cures blood troubles we are stating a fact which is corroborated by the experience of thousands, and doubtless there are persons in your locality who know its value as a blood medicine because they have used it, or heard of its being used, with success.

Our bodies are absolutely dependent on pure blood for health. This fluid is the most vital force of life, and as long as it remains pure we are apt to escape disease, but any impurity, humor or poison acts injuriously on the system and affects some portion of the body.

Pustular eruptions, pimples, rashes, and the various skin affections, show that the blood is in a feverish and diseased condition as the result of some humor, or the presence of a fiery acid which inflames and irritates the delicate fibres and tissues. Rheumatism comes from an excess of uric acid in the circulation, causing soreness and stiffness of the muscles and joints, while Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, and Contagious Blood Poison are all deep-seated blood disorders which will continue to grow worse as long as the cause remains.

S. S. S. is a natural blood purifier and tonic. It is made entirely of the pure juices and extracts of roots, herbs and barks of recognized curative ability, and being absolutely free from all harmful minerals is a safe medicine for young or old. S. S. S. goes down into the circulation and removes every trace of impurity, humor or poison. It purifies and enriches the blood and cures promptly and permanently Rheumatism, Catarrh, Sores and Ulcers, Scrofula, Skin Diseases, Contagious Blood Poison, and all other diseases and disorders due to impurities and poisons in the blood, whether inherited or acquired.

S. S. S. is the most reliable and at the same time the most pleasant acting medicine for those whose blood has become weak and anaemic, or who are suffering from Malaria or other debilitating sickness. It adds strength to the circulation, builds up failing health, and in every way acts as a bracing, healthful tonic to the system. We will be glad to send a general treatise on the blood, and any medical advice necessary to the treatment, free to all who write describing the trouble from which they are suffering. S. S. S. is for sale at all drug stores.

SNUB BY AN ASTOR

MAN WHO WAS BORN IN AMERICA, BUT BOASTS HE'S BRITISH SUBJECT.

MISS MCGREW IN SOCIAL WHIRL

Mrs. Pamela Prentice Buys Pretty Gowns—Walter Pulitzer Arranging for Publication of New Comic Opera.

(BY MARQUIS DE CASTELLANE.)

International News Service. Paris, July 2.—In those distant days when William Waldorf Astor was still an American citizen and minister to Italy, he wrote a novel which he called "Beatrice Cenci." Whether the success of this book did not meet his expectations or whether a little professional jealousy has tinged his views of writers and their works, I do not know, but I do know his treatment of the Irish authoress, Miss May de la Cherois, has given rise to much comment.

It seems this lady is engaged upon a romance of Henry VIII. and Anne Bolyn. Wishing to get all the local color possible for her book, she approached the master of Clivedon and asked permission to visit the room where Henry and Anne carried on their courtship. To her surprise, Mr. Astor flatly refused her admittance to the house. Very indignantly the authoress said to him:

"I suppose you refuse because you wish to show that you are a free American?"

"Not at all," retorted Mr. Astor, "I am not an American; I am a British subject, and as I bought Clivedon I suppose I may do as I please with it."

And now Miss May de la Cherois is saying things in favor of the old feudal system. Her private opinion is that if Mr. Astor had his way he would simply go about ordering people off the earth.

The close of Mrs. Tarn McGrew's honeymoon finds her again in the whirl of the social world. Evidently, she means to keep up her reputation for the originality of her entertainments, which are never like those of other ladies of her set, or any other set, for that matter.

Sometimes this blithesome lady, whose Christian name, by the way, is Isabel, has birds served in their feathers to her wondering guests. Once, when entertaining King George, brother of King Victor, of Serbia, the center of her dining table was adorned with huge blocks of ice in the shape of the pyramids of Egypt. This at the time she was Mrs. Scott-Grant and was in the matrimonial market. The prince was very attentive to her and their engagement was supposed to be a settled thing. The charming Mrs. Scott-Grant, however, did not marry him. Instead she married Tarn McGrew, the young Hawaiian.

Not long ago Mrs. McGrew entertained the Infante Eulalie at a gorgeous banquet. On this occasion her centerpiece consisted of a fountain whose waters played merrily all through the dinner. All would have gone well had not the infant, who occupied the seat of honor, received a wetting, to the detriment of her ball dress, to say nothing of her soup. Otherwise, the innovation of the fountain was a dazzling success.

Mrs. Pamela Prentice, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, has been in Paris buying pretty gowns. Mrs. Prentice has just passed through what is termed a "preventative" treatment at Carlsbad.

While still Miss Rockefeller, Dr. Kuler, the famous aurist, cured her of threatened deafness. From time to time she returns to him for this treatment. On her recent visit she has been accompanied by her husband and her little son. The Pretence may really be said to have opened the season at Carlsbad, having been the very first Americans to arrive.

Several times during the past year it has been rumored that Miss Anne Morgan, daughter of J. Pierpont Morgan, will marry Don Jaime, son of the late Don Carlos, and claimant to the throne of Spain. It is difficult and perhaps premature to get confirmation of this interesting fact, but I know Don Jaime and Miss Morgan have met and are very congenial.

The meeting took place at the Villa Trianon at Versailles, the beautiful summer home of Miss Elsie de Wolf and Elizabeth Marbury. Miss Morgan is a great friend of these ladies and an annual visitor at Versailles. It was at one of their "at homes," which are held every Sunday, that Miss Morgan met the prince. This dashing young cavalry officer is said to have been immensely

On the other hand, no woman, American or otherwise, could help admiring this handsome prince, who belongs to the oldest royal family in Europe, and who but for the Fall of law, would be on the throne of Spain today. Don Jaime is a militant and capable leader. If the Carlist cause were backed by the Morgan millions who could say what might happen? Jaime's chances for the throne are far brighter than were those of Napoleon the third.

Republicanism is growing in Europe, and Don Jaime might be elected prince president, as was Louis Napoleon in France. So there is nothing that I can see to prevent Miss Morgan at least being the wife of the prince president of the future republic of Spain. Jaime is an immense favorite. And stranger things have happened.

Walter Pulitzer, of New York, son of the late Albert Pulitzer and nephew of Joseph Pulitzer, has arranged in Vienna for the production of his new comic opera. It is entitled "The Pasha's Wives." The libretto is by an English dramatist, a Mr. Eden Greville, who, I believe, resides in New York. Most of the scenes are laid about an Egyptian harem.

The young composer's uncle, Dr. Adam Pulitzer, is one of the most famous physicians in Vienna. It is said his host of social friends will fill the opera house on the night of the opening.

Young Pulitzer has written some rather good songs. Unquestionably he is the musical member of the family. His cousin, Ralph, who married Miss Webb, is well known in the social and sporting world. Young Pulitzer has literary aspirations also, and intends starting a weekly review in New York next year, to be called "The Joker."

Gray Hair Restored

My hair was getting quite gray and falling out rapidly, and I was troubled with a terrible itching of the scalp. My head was full of dandruff, which fell upon my clothes and kept me continually brushing it off. While on a visit to Rochester I heard of your Sage and Sulphur for the hair. I got a bottle and used it. A few applications relieved the itching, my hair stopped falling out and gradually came back to its natural color. It is now a nice dark brown color, soft, glossy and pliable. Several of my friends want to use it, and I want to know what you will charge me for six bottles of it.

Grew Hair on a Bald Head

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is fairly covered and keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

FRENCH CHURCHES

TO SAVE THE HISTORICAL EDIFICES IS ENDEAVOR OF M. MAURICE BARRES.

CLUB LIFE IN PARIS HAS CHANGED

Determined Effort to Stamp Out the Opium Dens of Brest—Activity of German Secret Service Agents.

BY GEORGE DUFRESNE.
International News Service.

Paris, July 2.—To save the historical old churches of France from destruction is at present the chief endeavor of M. Maurice Barres.

By the separation law, the question of repairing these ancient structures has become a veritable problem. In numerous country districts the Catholic inhabitants are too poor to subscribe the necessary funds, and the municipal councils have no power to do so. Hence, when an old building dating from the thirteenth and fourteenth centuries is seen to be tottering, the authorities solve the difficulty by employing molinite.

The latest example took place near Versailles. It appears when the mayor of a commune of aesthetic opinions—and they are many in France—gets the chance of blowing a church to pieces he is delighted, and the consequences are becoming deplorable.

Club life in Paris is one of the interesting developments of the times. Until recently there were no such institutions for the man of moderate means, but philanthropy and a taste for sport have changed all that. For the club of high degree, making a direct appeal to society, the government "touches" forty francs on the subscription, if above a certain amount. The object is two-fold—to raise revenue and to keep an eye on the "goings on" of the members. It is also suspected that the man with a "de" to his name (unless he prove to be of Protestant patronage) is "agin" the government. A tax levied on the subscriptions gives an excuse for surveillance.

The Vivante Rome de Montozon Brachet, a quiet young man of excellent lineage, has just started a club on novel lines as far as France is concerned. It holds out the hand of fellowship to the young foreigner residing in this city for the purpose of study or otherwise. Art exhibitions, concerts and lectures will bring the young men into contact with the elite of Parisian society. There will be no more excuse for being lonely. The club premises are situated at 13 Rue de Bayeux, in the Mont Parnasse region, which is peopled, so largely by the raw young man, with notions of paint, from the western wilds of America. Among the patrons of this interesting work is M. Edmond Rostand, the Duchesse de Rohan and Mme. Juliette Adam, the well known woman journalist and writer.

The authorities are making a determined effort to stamp out the opium dens of Brest, concerning which unpleasant disclosures have been made. The frequenters of these dens were mostly naval officers and young men belonging to well-to-do families in the town. The places were kept by young women of the "half world." After a long and careful investigation, the authorities decided to prosecute these women and two men who dealt in drugs. The case came before the correctional court at Brest, and after hearing the evidence of the police commissioner who raided the dens it was decided to convict the prisoners. The four women were each sentenced to a month's imprisonment and fined $25. The accused males were given four days' imprisonment.

Attention was first directed to the opium scandal in Brest in 1908. In August of that year a young woman belonging to the world of gallantry was discovered dead in one of the opium dens. A post-mortem examination showed that she had died through opium smoking.

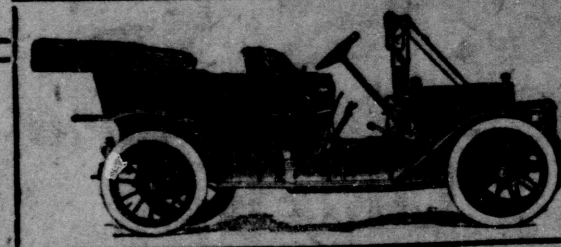

An idea of the activity of Germany's secret service agents on the eastern frontier may be gathered from the espionage case which has just been concluded at Rheims. The prisoners were a man named Taffin, formerly belonging to an engineer regiment at Nancy, and Rose Tamisier, his mistress, who assumed the role of a decoy, exercising her charms on young soldiers, who, she thought, might be likely to procure those documents relating to the national defense which the German secret agent wanted. The woman set out to win the heart of a soldier belonging to the 132d regiment, but he discovered her real game, and instead of succumbing to her blandishments he had her arrested. This soldier and two other women gave evidence.

The man Taffin declared that he had received $175 from the German secret service agent for certain papers, but while he got the money, he asserts that he did not part with a single paper.

The trial was a secret one. Taffin was found guilty, and sentenced to five years' imprisonment, fined $600 and forbidden to reside in the country for ten years. The woman was exempted from punishment because she had denounced Taffin.

DAM THE NIANGUA

UNDERTAKING ONE OF MAGNITUDE

Will Furnish Electric Power to the Towns of Versailles, Eldon, Jefferson City, California and Tipton.

H. A. Young, vice president, and W. E. Bradford, secretary, of the Continental Power Development Co., of Versailles, were in Eldon Tuesday promoting the interests of this new enterprise, which promises to be one of the greatest achievements in the state, says the Eldon Advertiser.

The company proposes to dam the Niangua river near Nonesuch and develop electric power with the water of this swift stream. The survey has been made, the cost estimated and practical calculations indicate that more than 120,000 horse power can be obtained at a comparatively low cost after the dam and plant is completed.

From the power plant the company will conduct the current to Versailles, Eldon, Jefferson City, California, Tipton and back to Versailles, thus furnishing each of these cities with all the power needed for industrial purposes and light.

The very low rate at which this power can be developed will enable any of the cities in the circuit to offer this as an inducement for factories and power plants of all kinds.

The work of constructing the big dam 100 feet wide is under way, and the project is not simply a promoter's scheme, but an actual enterprise that will do more to develop Central Missouri than anything that has ever been done in this territory.

It is the intention of the company to operate an electric line also with the power.

THE DEAREST CITY

THAT IS, THE ONE IN WHICH IT IS MOST EXPENSIVE TO TAKE UP ABODE.

IS ALSO THE MOST OVERCROWDED

These Are the Two Distinctions of Vienna, the Capital of Austria, According to Official "Statistics."

International News Service.

Vienna, July 2.—The most overcrowded city in Europe, and also the dearest place to live in, have become two of Vienna's distinctions. According to the latest statistics, nearly one-half of the dwellings in Vienna consist of one room. Everybody lives in flats, and 43 per cent of the population are crowded into these single-room apartments, while 30,000 of them are inhabited by six or more persons.

It is not surprising, therefore, that there is an appallingly high mortality rate. In the crowded tenement districts 296 deaths per 10,000 inhabitants are recorded, compared with 123 in the wealthier quarters. The late death rate from tuberculosis in the working class districts is 70 per 10,000.

The Austrian parliament has now taken steps to provide decent dwellings for the poor at cheaper rates. For this purpose an appropriation of $250,000 a year for ten years will be placed at the disposal of local authorities and building societies.
